SINGLES. The singles are dominated by Ke$ha's Tik Tok for the fifth consecutive week. In light of the ARIA Awards and a full week's worth of sales, the chart sees some serious movement from The Temper Trap, who jump from No.48 to No.16 with Sweet Disposition. Empire Of The Sun's Walking On A Dream leaps fifty-three spots to No.23 and, a little further down, Lisa Mitchell's Coin Laundry washes up from No.73 into No.32 and Ladyhawke glides into No.41 with My Delerium. Meanwhile, ARIA Award winners Sarah Blasko and Hilltop Hoods are sitting at No.44 and No.45 with We Won't Run and Chase That Feeling respectively.

No.33 LET ME BE ME – Jessica Mauboy. After setting the stage alight with her flaming performance at this year's ARIA Awards ceremony, Jessica Mauboy enters the chart with Let Me Be Me. The 2006 Australian Idol runner-up recently picked the ARIA Award for highest selling single for Running Back (No.3 Oct. '08). The latest single is the sixth single to come off Mauboy's debut album, Been Waiting (No.11 Sep. '09) and sixth consecutive top 40 hit. Most notable tracks from the album include Burn (No.1 Jan. '09), Because (No.9 June '09) and Up/Down (No.11 Sep. '09).

No.55 UNDISCLOSED DESIRES - Muse. Set to headline next year's Big Day Out is three piece Muse. The English band consists of Matthew Bellamy (vocals, guitar, piano), Christopher Wolstenholme (bass, backing vocals), and Dominic Howard (drums). The trio formed in 1994 whilst in college and have been banging out the tunes ever since. Undisclosed Desires is featured on Muse's current album The Resistance (No.1 Sep. '09) and follows on from Uprising (No.23 Oct. '09).

No.66 I DREAMED A DREAM – Susan Boyle. This unsuspecting star in the making blew the world away with her rendition of I Dreamed A Dream from Les Miserables for her audition for Britain's Got Talent. Susan Boyle's audition was viewed on YouTube by more than 100 million viewers in the first few days after it was released on the site. Boyle eventually was voted in as runner-up to a dance troupe. But Boyle got the last hurrah with her debut album, also entitled I Dreamed A Dream not only topping our albums chart, but also peaking at No.1 in the UK, Ireland, USA, New Zealand and Canada.

No.76 LEAN ON ME – Glee Cast. Written and originally performed by Bill Withers, Lean On Me gets the Glee makeover. Lean On Me is one of only nine songs in American history to have reached No.1 by two different acts. The first was in 1972 by Withers and again in 1987 by Club Nouveau.

No.82 WAIT YOUR TURN - Rihanna. Urban princess, Rihanna has taken on an edgier look since her debut Pon De Replay (No.6 Nov.) in 2005. After rolling out a string of hits including three No.1 singles – SOS (June '06), Umbrella (July '07) and Don't Stop The Music (Mar. '08), Rihanna has unleashed the second single lifted from her latest album Rated R. The first single, Russian Roulette is currently sitting at No.8 on the ARIA Singles Chart this week.

No.92 THE NOSEBLEED SECTION – Hilltop Hoods. The Hilltop Hoods who also graced the stage on ARIA Awards night make an entry to the ARIA Single Chart this week with their track, The Nosebleed Section. Originally, the track was a radio hit on Triple J, hitting No.9 on the Triple J Hottest 100 in 2003. But it failed to make an impact on the ARIA Chart. After being voted No.17 on Triple J's Hottest Of All Time recently, the track was also the highest ranking Australian tune on that chart. The hip-hoppers are enjoying a second wind from the track, which is taken from their album The Calling (No.53 Apr. '04).

No.93 WILD HORSES – Susan Boyle. With the world going Boyle-istic over the overnight sensation, Susan Boyles graces the chart with her second debut this week. Wild Horses is a cover of The Rolling Stones 1971 classic. Written by Mick Jagger and Keith Richards, the Boyle version recently peaked at No.9 in the UK. Boyle said on covering the track "How could you help but be drawn in by this haunting theme? It conjures up memories of childhood amongst Council Estates, poverty and struggle in the first verse. Irony and bitterness – One of my personal favourites and an emotional release."

No.100 NO MORE – Cassie Davis. Perth-born, Cassie Davis made her mark on the ARIA Singles Chart in the early part of this year with Like It Loud. The single went on to peak at No.11 in February and has been certified with a gold accreditation. Davis followed it up with Differently (No.29 June '09) and Do It Again (No.24 Aug. '09). No More and her previous release can be found on Davis' current album titled, Differently (No.14 Aug. '09).

ALBUMS. Susan Boyle holds on to top spot this week and Michael Buble is runner-up with Crazy Love. A big week for ARIA Award winners and performers. Big winner, Empire Of The Sun and their album Walking On A Dream moved back up from No.54 to No.13, while there were significant moves back up the chart for Sarah Blasko, Kate Miller-Heidke, Lisa Mitchell, Jessica Mauboy and guest performer Robbie Williams. Keith Urban, The Temper Trap, AC/DC and Ladyhawke all re-entered the chart on the back of Awards exposure. Elsewhere, Fleetwood Mac's Very Best Of climbed back up the chart to coincide with their current tour, now sitting at No.36. Jimmy Barnes' The Rhythm And The Blues headed north as well to No.41, in the same week that he got back together with his former band, Cold Chisel.

No.29 TRIPLE J'S LIKE A VERSION 5 - Various. The Like A Version segment on Triple J has become a firm favourite with listeners since its inception in 2004. The segment features artists performing covers in a re-imagined form. This album is the fifth compilation that brings together selected performances on the segment. Included in this set is The Kooks covering MGMT, Urthboy covering The Clash, TZU covering You Am I and Whitley covering ABBA. Also included in the package is a DVD with the performances captured by Triple J TV. Two previous volumes of the series have also charted; Like A Version Three (No.24 Sep. '07) and Like A Version Four (No.34 Nov. '08).
